SSE/WHE Work Visa Application

under Supplementary Seasonal Employment or Working Holidaymaker Extension Instructions

Important information

Only use this application form if you are applying for a work visa under the Supplementary Seasonal Employment (SSE) Instructions or the Working Holidaymaker Extension Instructions.

Please note that you will only be eligible for a visa under these instructions if you are currently in New Zealand.

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, please print clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Work visa you are applying for

Indicate which work visa you are applying for:

- Supplementary Seasonal Employer (SSE)
 Working Holiday Extension (WHE)

SSE is for applicants who hold a temporary entry class visa and have a genuine intention to work for an SSE-approved employer.

WHE is for applicants who hold a work visa granted under a working holiday scheme and who have been employed to undertake seasonal work in the horticulture or viticulture industry for a period of at least three months during the currency of their working holiday scheme visa.

General requirements for SSE/WHE work visa

To enable your application to be accepted you must submit all of the following documents. If you do not do so your application may be returned to you.

- A completed, signed application form.
- The application fee and applicable levies.
- Your passport or travel document* which must be valid for three months past the date you plan to leave New Zealand.
- Two recent passport-size photographs attached to this form in the Section A: Personal details.
- Evidence of an outward ticket from New Zealand, or sufficient funds to buy one.
- Any documents required by the instructions you are applying under, as detailed in this application form.

For the purposes of the SSE and Working Holidaymaker Extension Instructions, seasonal work in the horticulture or viticulture industries is planting, picking, maintaining or harvesting crops.

*While you can provide a certified copy of your passport with your application, we highly recommend you provide your original passport. This will enable us to process your application faster and it may be needed to complete your application. Please note during the processing of an application an immigration officer may request any document, including your original passport. SSE work visa applicants.

You must complete sections A, B, C, E, F, and G of this form.

In addition to the general requirements above, you must provide evidence of having a genuine intention to work for an SSE-approved employer in the horticulture and viticulture industries. This evidence may include, but is not limited to:

- a job offer from an SSE-approved employer;
- arrangements for travel to or accommodation in regions where SSE employers are located;
- evidence of the horticulture and viticulture work you intend to complete, such as information on SSE employers, crops and regions or a harvest trail plan;
- correspondence with the relevant region's seasonal coordinator(s) to obtain information on SSE employers; or
- evidence of contact with SSE employer(s) whose details are available on the Immigration New Zealand website.

Please note, you may only be approved a work visa under these instructions once. There is a limit on the number of SSE work visa holders allowed which is set by INZ in consultation with the Ministry of Social Development. Your SSE work visa application may not be granted if there are no available places for SSE workers.

Conditions of the SSE work visa

These instructions allow for the granting of visas for employment in seasonal work in the horticulture and viticulture industries, for employers who have been approved in principle under SSE instructions.

Your visa will allow you to work for any employer who holds a current SSE approval in principle. It will be granted for six months.

Working Holidaymaker Extension applicants

You must complete sections A, B, D, E, F and G of this form.

In addition to the general requirements above, you must provide evidence of having been employed to undertake seasonal work in the horticulture or viticulture industries for a period of at least three months during the currency of your working holiday scheme visa.

Conditions of the Working Holidaymaker Extension work visa

If approved a visa under the Working Holidaymaker Extension Instructions, you will be able to work in New Zealand for an additional three months from the expiry date of your working holiday scheme visa. Your label will be endorsed with the same conditions as your working holiday scheme visa.

Health

People who intend to be in New Zealand:

- for more than six months who:
 - are from a country, area or territory not listed as low incidence for tuberculosis (TB), or
 - have spent more than a total of three months in the past five years in a country, area or territory not listed as low incidence for TB, or
 - have spent six consecutive months in a place that is not listed as a low incidence TB country since any previous application made to Immigration New Zealand,must complete a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096).
- for more than 12 months must complete a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) and Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096).

Please note, applicants for the Working Holidaymaker Extension visa are not required to submit a medical certificate or chest X-ray certificate regardless of the duration they have spent in New Zealand, unless requested to do so by an immigration officer.

Please refer to the guide Health Requirements (INZ 1121) for more details on immigration health instructions and a list of low-incidence TB countries, areas and territories.

Character

If you intend to be in New Zealand for two years or longer and you are aged 17 or over you must submit a police certificate from your country of citizenship and any country in which you have lived for five years or more since attaining the age of 17 years (or satisfactory evidence that you have never lived in that country).

If you have been removed, deported or excluded from any country, you may not meet character requirements and may not be eligible to be granted a visa. You must declare if you have been removed, deported or excluded from any country, excluding New Zealand.

Note: We may request additional information to enable your application to be determined.

Section G Declaration

I understand the questions and contents of this form, and the information I have provided is true and correct.

I understand that if false or misleading information is submitted, my application may be declined without further warning.

I understand that if, between the time that I make this application and the time it is decided, any relevant matter relating to the application changes, I am obliged to inform Immigration New Zealand (INZ). I understand I am responsible for making sure I leave New Zealand before my visa expires and that if I do not I may be liable for deportation.

I understand that Immigration New Zealand may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers via the online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

Short-term work visa holders are generally not eligible for publicly-funded health and disability services. People covered by New Zealand's Reciprocal Health Agreements with Australia and the United Kingdom are entitled to publicly-funded health care for immediately necessary medical treatment only. I understand that if not entitled to free treatment, I will pay for any health care or medical assistance I may require in New Zealand.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, INZ will return my application.

I authorise INZ to provide information about my state of health and my immigration status to any health service agency.

I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my state of health to INZ.

I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it considers necessary in respect of information provided on this form in order to make a decision on this application and enquiries about my subsequent immigration status. I authorise any agency which holds information (including personal information) relevant to those matters to disclose that information to INZ.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a work visa under the Supplementary Seasonal Employment (SSE) Instructions or the Working Holidaymaker Extension Instructions. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand.

This is not where your application should be sent.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

If you come to New Zealand, you will be able to ask to see the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary.

For more information

If you have questions about completing the form:

- see our website www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus.
- telephone our call centre on 0508 558 855 (within New Zealand).
